"I Have Found the Book of the Law"

Maybe you can relate. You're cleaning a closet or the garage or a storage room and you come across something you haven't seen in years. Maybe a sweater, maybe a picture, maybe a tool. You're surprised that it had been missing for so long, yet it was right there all along.

Josiah was just 8 years old when he became king. He did not have good genes. His grandfather, Manasseh, was the most evil king Judah ever had and he reigned 55 years. His son, Josiah's father, Amon, was no better and reigned 2 years. So for 57 years, Judah was ruled by wicked kings who not only allowed pagan worship, but actively supported it. The true worship of God at the temple had been abandoned. When Josiah was 26, he commissioned a renovation of the temple. During this renovation Hilkiah, the high priest makes an extraordinary discovery. He comes to Shaphan, the secretary and says, "I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD". The assumption to be made is that the Book of the Law had been lost. Lost in the temple!

When Josiah is told of the discovery and is read the Book, he tears his robes in sorrow. He then summons all the people together and reads the Book to them. He reads it to them himself. He doesn't delegate. He doesn't expect someone else to do it.

Two quick points:

1. The Book can be lost to us. Right here in this church. Right here in our homes. By neglecting God's word, it can be just as lost to us as it was to Judah.
2. This is for parents. Do not assume that your children are being taught the Book by someone else. It is your responsibility to teach them.

So, may it never be said that the Book was lost here. May it never be that the Book was found.

- Tim
