David is overflowing with joy as he writes this psalm. He understands that the Lord is with him no matter what the situation or circumstance. He gives praise to God in the moments of joy but also glories in God in the time of affliction and wants to pass that on to those who hear this psalm. His desire here in verse three is that we might glorify the Lord together and exalt His mighty name. It is such joy and encouragement when we come together and exalt the Lord. May we have that same desire to worship and exalt the Lord together. Our Sunday worship together is a precious time we have to worship the Lord and fellowship with one another. Let us make it our habit to be together in worship and not let the world and its pleasures drain us.

Keep fired up in the Lord, Mark .

"I will extol the Lord at all times;

his praise will always be on my lips.

I will glory in the Lord;

let the afflicted hear and rejoice.

Glorify the Lord with me;

let us exalt his name together."

Psalm 34:1-3

For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.”

Hebrews 12:1-2
